Call for Submissions for 2023 FEO Excellence Award

Dear Presidents and Delegates,

On behalf of the European Federation of Orthodontics, we are sending you notice of the FEO Excellence Award as above. We ask for societies to make their proposition before the 17th of March 2023 please.

FEO EXCELLENCE AWARD

The FEO Excellence Award was established in 2020 by action of the FEO Council following an amendment in the FEO Internal rules. It was approved at the Athens FEO General Assembly Meeting of 6th Dec 2020, and this will be its second presentation following the inaugural award to Professor Nigel Hunt of the UK in 2021.

The FEO Excellence Award is offered every second year to members who are registered orthodontists of an affiliated or corresponding society that have significantly contributed to the progress of orthodontics in Europe.

1. The Board will call upon nominations every other year.
2. The Secretary General will send a letter calling for nominations and stating the deadline.
3. A FEO affiliated society in good standing is eligible to submit a nomination to the FEO Excellence Award. Each nominator is limited to one FEO Excellence Award nomination.
4. To make a nomination the following is required:
 - a. a curriculum vitae,
 - b. a short resume of the contribution to the progress of orthodontics in Europe,
 - c. a letter of nomination and support signed by the president of the national orthodontic society, member of the FEO.

Criteria for nomination:

1. Nominee must be an orthodontist.
2. Nominee has made significant contributions to the science related to the specialty of orthodontics through research in Europe.
3. Nominee has made a significant humanitarian contribution as a clinical orthodontist.
4. Nominee has established an academic legacy, inspiring young generations in the specialty of orthodontics through teaching and research.
